-The total receipts of the Garfield hir in Washington were between $20,-000 and $25,000, and the expenses $15,-000 or a little more. The Secertary of the Board of Directors has stated that he is confident the fair netted between $5,000 and $10,000.

-The New York Herald made a net profit of eight hundred and fifty thousand dollars during the past year, and still there are some people who are afraid to invest in the newspaper business, and even think newspaper men are sometimes poor.

-The Chicago Tribune, for a column of advertising a year, receives $26,000. The New York Herald receives for its lowest-priced column $38,732, and for Ite highest $384,000. The New York Tribune for its lowest $19,794, and for Its highest $85,648, and these papers are never at a loss for advertisements to fill their columns. Their patronage comes not from any desire to assist the respective papers, but from business men who find it porfitable to advertine.

Of Interest to Trespassers.

No man has the right to go upon the premises of another, whether for gunning or other purposes, without the consent of the owner, and every person so doing is a trespasser. Although it is custom for persons to enter upon the ground of others for the purpose of fishing, hunting and gunning, yet they have no right to do it without the consent of the owner. Being a trespasser he must go off the premises, if directed, and must not stand upon his going. He must move off as fast as he can but need not run. If he refuses to go, the owner may use such force as is necessary to put him off, even if it result in the injury of the offender, but you dare not use more force than is absolutely necessary.

The Orbit of the Comet of 1882.

Washington, December 21,-Profeesor Fribsy, of the Naval Observatory, has just completed a calculation of the orbit of the great comet of 1882 from observations made on September 19. October 8 and November 24. He Ands the orbit to be a very long ellipse. having a period of about seven hundred and ninety-three years. He thinks the comet is probably identical with a very large comet seen in 371 D. C., and again in 363 A. D., about the time of the death of Constantine, Its perihelion distance is only about 700,000 miles from the centre of the sun and its orbit extends outward at distance from the earth. On account time may be somewhat uncertain,

-Heading, Dec. 24 -Miss Maggle Enggerty, a beautiful young girl of Steen years of age, daughter of ex-Policeman Haggerty, fell in love with man employed in the public works in this city. Several weeks ago the young man left town, and the girl became tired of watting for his return. Rinally she heard that he had oncluded not to return at all, and then Lies Haggerty quietly informed sevoml of her young lady friends that she was going to kill herself, and she bade then good-bye. She went to a drug store, bought "Rough on rats," an ersenical polson, took a dose, and then returned home, where she awaited her mother. It was some time before the girl admitted the cause of her terrible iliness and vomiting, and before medical sid could be summoned she dropped over in a dying condition, and after lingering a few hours in conciderable pain she died.

-THE WEEKLY PRESS of Philadelphia may be conscientiously commended as a newspaper for the family circle. It is able and vigorous, but always de corous in its treatment of all social and political questions, gives the news of the day with freshness fairness, and fearlessness; and its several departments, all in charge of journalists or specialists of recognized fitness, touch every current topic of human interest. Among the special features of THE WREKLY PRESS are its letters from all of the great political centres; foreign correspondence; contributions to the unwritten history of the late war; a page every week of carefully prepared ericultural muscellany; a full tashion end bousehold department; suggestions for winter pastimes: literary re views and notes; a good complete story; the news of the churches, and complete market reports. The Harrisburg Patriot has performed a commendable historical duty by compiling a list of governors of the state of Pennsylvania, from the date of the adoption of the first constitution, down to the present time. From this compilation it appears that Robert E. Pattison will be the nineteenth governor of the state. The first constitution for the government of Pennsylvania as a state went into effect on the 2d day of September, 1790. An election was held under it the following month and Thomas Mifflin, of Philadelphia, who had been president of the supreme executive council since October, 1788, was elected, and on the the 21st day of December, 1790, inaugurated as governor in the city of Philadelphia, "with much ceremony." He was governor that time until December, 1799, a period of nine years, having been twice re-elected. Thomas McKean, of Chester, who succeeded Mifflin, was governor from December, 1799, to December, 1808. like his predecessor, filling the office for three terms. For the next three terms, or until December, 1817. Simon Snyder, of Union county, was governor. William Finley, of Frank lin county, was governor from December, 1817, to December, 1820; Joseph Hiester, of Bucks county, from December, 1820 to December, 1823; John Andrew Schultz, of Lebanon county, from December 1823, to December, 1829, two terms; George Wolf, of Northampton county, from December, 1829, to December 1835, two terms; Joseph Ritner, of Washington county, from December, 1835, until the third Tuesday of January, 1839, the beginning of the gubernational term having been changed by the amended constitution of 1838 from the third Tuesday of December to the third Tuesday of January. David R. Porter, of Huntingdon county, was governor from January, 1839, until January, 1845, two terms; Francis R. Shuuk, of Montgomery county, from January, 1845, to July 9, 1848. Having been reelected in 1847, Governor Shunk resigned on the 9th of July. 1848, when William F. Johnson, of Armstrong county, who was speaker of the senate, by virtue of his office became governor until the third Tuesday of January, 1849. In the meantime Governor Johnson had been elected in 1848, and on the third Tuesday of January, 1849, was inaugurated and served a full term, until January, 1852. William Bigler, of Clearfield county, was gov ernor from January, 1852, to January, 1855; James Pollock, of Northumberland county, from January, 1855, to January, 1858; William P. Packer, of Lycoming county, from January, 1858, to January, 1861; Andrew G. Curtin. of Centre county, from January, 1861 until January, 1867, two terms, cover ing the entire period of the war; John W. Geary, of Westmoreland, from January, 1867, to January, 1872, two terms; John F. Hartranit, of Montaphelion to about 90 times the sun's gomery, from January 1873, to Janu ary, 1879, two terms; Henry M. Hoyt, of the extreme length of the orbit the of Luzerne, is the present incumben-He was elected to serve from January, 1879, to January, 1883. Of these eighteen governors of the state only four are now diving, namely : Pollock, Curtin, Hartranft and Heyt. Governors Mifflin, McKean, Snyder, Findlay, Shuitz, Wolf, Porter, Shunk, Bigler and Packer were democrats McKean at his third election ran asan independent democract against Simon Snyder. Hiester was elected by the federalists Ritner by the anti-Masons, Johnston as a whig, Poliock by the know nothings, and Curtio, Geary, Hartrautt and Hoyt as republicans. The constitution of 1700 provided that a governor could be elected for three terms successively. The amended constitution of 1838 limited the time to two terms and that of 1874 to one term making it four years. Philadelphia was the capital of the state until 1799, when the seat of government was removed to Lancaster, and from Lancaster to Harris-

> And it might be added, Mr. Pattion, who will be thirty-two when he is inaugurated, will be the youngest governor the state has ever had. Thomas Millin was forty-six years of age when he was inaugurated, Thomas McKean was sixty five, Sincen Snyder forty-nine, William Findlay fortynine, Joseph Heister sixty-eight, John Andrew Shultz forty-eight, George Wolfe fifty-two, Joseph Ritner, fifty five, David R. Porter, fifty-one Francis R. Shunk fifty-seven, William F. Johnston forty, William Bigler thirty-eight, James Pollock fortyfive, William F. Packer fifty-one, Andrew G. Cartin forty-four, John W. health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of Brown' Iron Bit-TERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

> Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great soreness on my breast, with shorting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got so relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. It can justly be called the king of medicines.
